

fine and yet she is not mine but not because I would I just her. Well you must not go to Texas to stay you must stay here until I get ready to go to the Star State.

I will tell you in my next letter more about myself than most community in which I live.

I have been nearly sick for several days but I am now getting better but am very lonely, here at home by my self. I will come to see you and you alone if I can get off next Sabbath look for me any way.

I want to have magnolia and I believe I will move to Sipton is there any mill like Texas, there is
